

Product Range

Coupling Components

Various systems for individual use

Customized coupling components for cut tube ends, specially developed for photobioreactors.

- Fast installation allows reduced built-up time of the reactor
- Connection between glass and polymer/metal tubes possible (for passage to feeding line etc.)
- Easy to disassemble and re-use allowing easy modification or extension of a reactor system
- Easy handling with pre-assembled devices

More information available upon request.

Coupling with arrows indication the closing direction.
Product developed and produced in cooperation with Jäger Gummi und Kunststoffe GmbH

